Most Honored Sir—

I, the undersigned, most respectfully beg to bring the following few lines into your honor kind consideration and favourable orders—

I am at present drawing Rs 25/- per mensem as a Station master in Railway department and am here on leave, for procuring an appointment under my father's classes.

My father faithfully served in the Mysore State for upwards of 28 years in the Revenue department and died suddenly.

I am waiting in this District for an appointment in the Revenue department as per Devaraj order no 1301 dt 27-11-97, but much regret to state that are no vacancies

I hear that, there are vacancies in your honor's department. Therefore I humbly beg that, your honor will be good enough to favour me an appointment if vacant, or to register my name in the Subject. I am ready to work in any branch of your honor's department, and to go any place in Mysore Province

I further beg to state, I hear that some arrangements are to be made at Calcutta of S. I am ready to go and serve there, or to provide me an appointment at Lingsugur or anywhere.

I am ready to be as a Volunteer until a vacancy occurs.

Expecting an order to start.

I beg to remain
